FINIAL

*High above the sidewalks of Hampton Street in Columbia, crowning each of the twin towers of the old campus,
were the bud-like finials. It was these finials, as the crowning adornment of the building,
that inspired the name for the yearbook of C. B. C.*

VOLUME 45

THE COVER

The trumpets that God ordered Moses to amake were fashioned from pure hand-beaten silver. They were nearly three feet long, composed of a narrow tube that was flared slightly at one end to catch the breath, while the other end was flared like a bell. Their purpose was to announce the beginning of an event to the congregation (Numbers 10:2-10). On this our 60th year, we would announce to all, God's continued blessing to us. Pray for those that are sent out into the harvest, so that when the Lord comes again, with a shout and the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet of God, they will be found as a worker that need not be ashamed.

Post Office Box 3122, Columbia, South Carolina 29230 (803) 754-4100

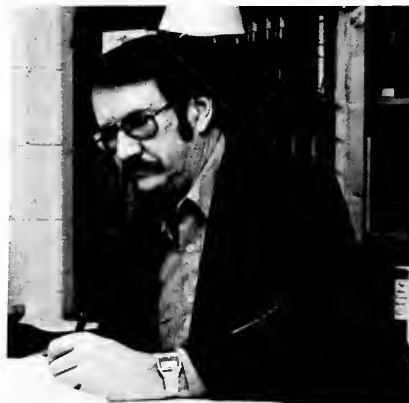

"Well, yes and no," is an oft used clause in Dr. Albert McCallister's vocabulary. The expression epitomizes a habit of thought towards learning realities. That is, an attitude of a willing acceptance which encourages the student to think further and to dialogue more about the issue. After all, the ultimate purpose of learning is not simply right and wrong answers, rather it is guiding and directing the pupil's mind to independent and creative thinking.

For over a decade, God has been using "Mac's" unique style, a smooth blend between philosopher and pastor, to train future kingdom workers. The Final dedication is simply a token of expressed gratitude. In a society that is seldom thankful, we say, "Thank you, and please continue to provide your sterling leadership and standard of excellence both in and out of the classroom."

DEDICATED TO

Dr. Albert McCallister

"I came to C.B.C. with training in theology and pastoral experience, and found that the need for apologetics and philosophy was in line with my further interest; and the Lord has led me along in unbelievable ways to the point where I'm about to get a Ph.D. in philosophy! It still staggers my imagination."

"My advice to graduates would be along the lines of the great needs which manifest themselves in all unbelieving cultures. Learn as much as you possibly can about the culture about you—its backgrounds and principles—so that when you present the gospel, it goes right to the heart of matters!"

Sixty years is a long time - longer than I have been around. Even sixteen years seems long when I see our children in this photograph taken when we first arrived at CBC from Japan.

Yet long or short, we testify to the One who has helped us thus far. Let this Finish be a memorial monument, our "Ebenzer," pointing to God's faithfulness through the years. It is because of His "track record" of faithfulness to us - and because of His promises - that we look to the future with confidence. His faithfulness endures to the class of '84 and, indeed, to all generations.

This dual message is the theme of our 84 Finish. As we use it in days to come, not only for pleasant reminiscences, but for believing prayer for people whose now-familiar faces might otherwise grow dim, let us celebrate God's faithfulness past and pray with expectancy for what He will do in and through us to His glory.

A Discription of the New Campus Site...

One of the highest sections of the land overlooks the restful river and presents a breathless view. The smooth lake, surrounded by woods... adds to the grandeur of the property and affords a wonderful place for prayer and meditation. You would have to see the property for yourself to fully appreciate the beauty and potentiality of this God-given tract of land.

1954 Finial

Look! See the campus—all new and spare and clean looking? With the dusty sites between the boxy brick buildings. . . with one pine tree courageously representing all downed members of his species. . . with a long, much traveled, uneven walkway joining men to women's dorms.

1964 Finial

In 1958 construction began, and in 1960 the present campus was occupied.

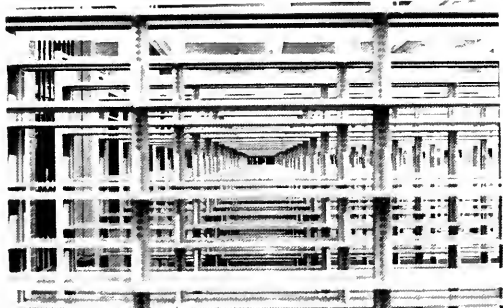

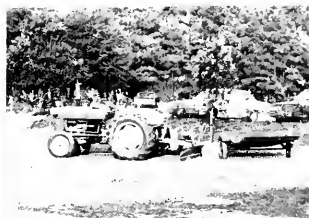

Two rooms were rented in the Colonia Hotel. Room 107 was Dr. McQuilkin's office. It was also the business office, and the cloak room for faculty and students. Room 209 was the only class room. A little organ stood in the corner, and chapel exercises as well as classes and prayer meetings were held here.

In 1927, with the approval of the South Carolina State Board of Education and the legislature, a four year course was established and Columbia Bible School became Columbia Bible College.

CHAPEL

"... His messages are always practical and challenging. His messages on the unreached and his report on India were heavy and heart searching, increasing my awareness of my lack of prayer and burden for these multitudes. His messages on prayer to open doors and being strong and doing exploits were convicting and challenging, giving much food for thought for the future. His message on "Why I am a Fundamentalist" greatly deepened my appreciation for his and C.B.C.'s stand on the Bible. Of all chapel programs, these with President McQuilkin have been most beneficial to me, and ones to remember for a lifetime."

To say, "Student Coordinating Council," is to adequately describe the organization. But, more specifically, it's a group of students that represent the entire scope of leadership at C.B.C./C.G.S. This cross section of students serves in several capacities; representing the student to different groups is among the most important. During the course of a school year the Student Coordinating Council will meet with the Board of Trustees, the Cabinet, the Advisory Council and sit on the Student Affairs Committee. A secondary role is that of trouble-shooting. The Student Coordinating Council makes sure that the many activities and events are properly scheduled. The Student Coordinating Council also sponsors several chapels that deal directly with student leadership, leadership banquets, the Formal, blood drives, all-school events and supports the Pro-Life Prayer Group.

STUDENT ASSOCIATION

We believe this year, more than any previous year, that the Student Association could be characterized by no other term than "transition". The Student Association has been groping in recent years for its own identity. We believe that the Student Association is more than a social organization. It has been our task to build upon foundations already in place, and to build in an imaginative and corrective fashion. We saw a need to integrate the social and the spiritual aspects of student life, and have tried to do so in our activities. We wanted to encourage co-ed interaction in a non-threatening environment. We believe we have accomplished that to some extent. We also desired to involve the students in the local community. We believe The Concern has served that purpose. God has been faithful and has certainly done exceeding abundantly beyond all that we could have asked.

THE STUDENT ASSOCIATION

For C.B.C. we stand, as a memorial to what it offers and to what we receive.

We have gathered from every wind to place ourselves among the pillars of the passing line of supporting structure.

We are all a part of it, and yet are each a whole, having an individual place in the school system and activity. As an Association, we are the fact of C. B. C.

The Student Association was impressed with a vision to reach out to the local community of Columbia. Seeing Columbia as our own Jerusalem (Acts 1:8), we wanted to do something of spiritual and eternal significance.

It has come to our attention that many local blacks who have been called by God into full-time Christian ministry do not have sufficient funds to attend training centers such as C.B.C. The desire for Biblical training exists but there is an acute financial need. The Concern has materialized to help meet that need.

We, the Student Association, believe that by giving more opportunities to black leaders for quality training these leaders will, in turn, return to their local communities to impact the city with the Gospel.

The Concern is a scholarship fund that will be used specifically for Columbia area individuals who qualify both spiritually and academically and who desire to be trained at Columbia Bible College.

THE S.A. CONCERN

THE GRITS BOWL

This year the Grit Bowl was sponsored by the Student Association, who are endeavoring to incorporate a floating trophy into this annual sports spectacular. The North were rumored to have been in intensive training with closed practice sessions for two weeks before the main event, yet the South overcame overwhelming odds to once again clinch the title. In doing so they assured the retention of the name 'Grits Bowl' for at least one more year, although the North are striving for victory and equality next year, by insuring the name be changed to 'The Cream of Wheat Bowl', should they win.

THE FINIAL

The Finial is a small slice of history which has been set between two covers as a preservative.

1964 Finial

The theme of the 1984 Finial has been centered around the year verse: "Hitherto hath the Lord helped us. . . Thy faithfulness is unto all generations." Information and photographs from the past have been scattered among the recording of the present. Testimonies to God's faithfulness from faculty, staff, and students presently at C. B. C. have also been interspersed among the pictures. As the silver trumpets on the cover herald the 60th anniversary of C. B. C. we can unitedly thank the Lord for helping us thus far, and praise Him for His faithfulness to us.

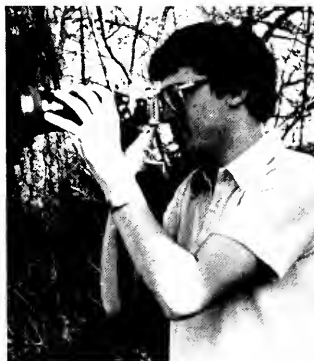

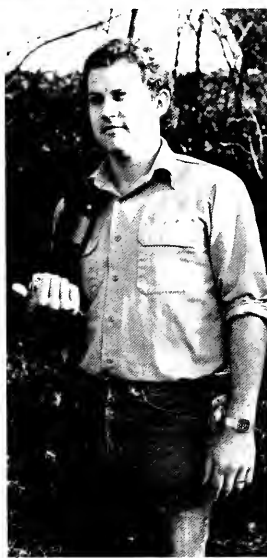

Thanks to the many photographers that took pictures, and a special thank you to Julie Pettigrew, Jim Dressner, and Dan Shepperson.

I would like to express my gratitude to:
My assistant editor, Lisa (above), for her hand in every page.
My husband, Dan, for running errands, cooking, cleaning, babysitting, and without whom this task would have been an impossibility.
My advisors, Dr. Don Hall and Miss Ruth Marshall, for their patience and encouragement.
The Photographer, Mark, for his many hours of work.
Mrs. Jean Steyne, Jane Dawson, and Leigh Ann Weber for the typing they did.
Deb Anderson, and the others who identified pictures.
Department heads, secretaries, and organization leaders for returning forms, and answering endless questions.
Mr. Bob Williams and Mr. Ralph Enlow for the loan of precious old photographs.
Past Finial editors (since its beginning in 1939), for accurately recording their "slice of history".
Mr. Arthur Mathews for his detailed, captivating account of C. B. C. history in his book Towers Pointing Upward.
The Student Coordinating Council and each student for the privilege of editing the 1984 Finial.

GRAD LIFE COUNCIL

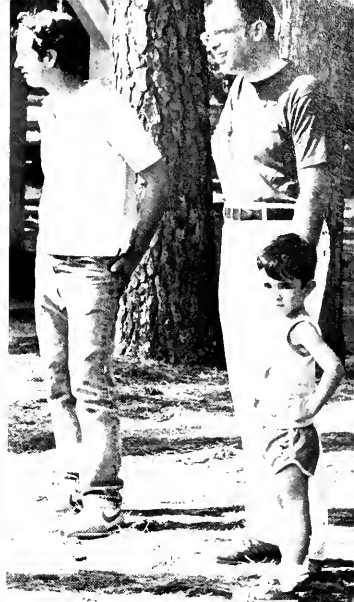

This 60th anniversary year has been a time of looking back with gratitude at what the Lord has accomplished as well as a time of looking forward in expectancy and hope at what He will continue to do.

The Lord continues to draw men and women from around the globe and from various occupations and professions to study at the Columbia Graduate School of Bible and Missions. We fully expect God to fulfill His promise by "...rewarding those who are seeking Him by faith".

These are also exciting days for the Graduate School in that many are taking the initiative in blazing the trail for new ministries both here at the Graduate School and throughout Columbia. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ is apparent in the lives of the faculty, staff, and students. In one voice we praise His name because,

"You are worthy, our Lord and God to receive glory and honor and power,
 for You created all things,
 and by Your will they were created and have their being."

OFF CAMPUS STUDENTS

The Off-Campus students of C. B. C. and C. G. S. understand in an intense personal way the reality of the words, "Hitherto hath the Lord helped us." God has shown His mighty power in our lives as we have conquered the challenge of being a student, spouse, parent, and friend all at the same time. The joy of experiencing His faithfulness firsthand makes it all worthwhile as we strain to accomplish our Master's bidding during our student years.

It is the job of the Off-Campus Student Association to help the school reach it's objectives in the lives of the students. This is accomplished in two ways. First, by serving the students in practical areas. This may include chapels geared toward particular needs, seminars on timely topics, or even a picnic such as the one last fall.

Secondly, the Off-Campus Student Association is a liaison between the students and administration. Through this responsibility, harmonious interchange takes place in an atmosphere of mutual respect, and the objectives of the school are furthered.

Where else could be experienced such things as: having to arrange a tight schedule allowing just enough time to get to school and slip into the seat as the bell rings; paying the rent, electricity, telephone, and fuel bills with an almost-empty pocket book (the children need shoes, Mommy needs stockings, and Daddy needs a much-needed theology textbook); rushing from the last class, swallowing a sandwich on the run to work; doing homework while the children are doing things to show their happiness in Daddy's being home; preparing sermons or Bible lessons for Christian Service; working on a car in hopes that it might hold together long enough to get you to school tomorrow; receiving unexpected visitors just as a meal has been placed steaming-hot on the table; and let us not forget our exercises: All of this and one still needs to find time for daily personal and family devotions. Do we regret it? . . . Not on your life!

WOMEN'S DORM

How does it all get done? Women's Open House, Sneak, Blood Drive . . . How do those halls actually stay quiet with 30 women excitedly discussing the activities of campus life? Women's Dorm Council.

Dorm Council is the organization that plans activities, enforces rules, and serves the other women. The seven floorleaders serve the girls in the most visible positions. They give much time and love to the lives of the girls on their halls. The other members of the Dorm Council have faithfully fulfilled their responsibilities. MEN'S DORM

The goal of this year's Men's Dorm Council was taken from Hebrews 3:13, "Encourage one another day by day . . . so as not to become hardened by the deceitfulness of sin." The Men's Dorm Council was responsible for maintaining order and leadership among the 200 undergrad men living on campus. Occasionally referred to as "The D Team" (for a good reason!), floorleaders patrolled seven halls, eager to "encourage" others to a quieter life of study and devotion . . . until February 10. On that date, the rooms were cleaned, the halls made into jungles, and the doors were opened for all to come join us for an evening at Disney World! Thanks to you sisters (Women's Dorm Council) for another great year at C. B. C. and pointing us on towards Christ.

THE SERVICE CHAIN

The purpose of the service chain is to help facilitate meeting needs among the Village family. From each street two coordinators arrange meals, babysitting, or whatever the need may be for their own street. Those serving in this capacity are Gail Brower and Karen Daves on First Street, Bery Bryan and Lisa Chambers on Second Street, and Laurel Ferguson and Pat Morton on Third Street. Cheryl Bretsnyder organizes the Service Chain for the whole Village. True Christian community spirit comes forth as families in need are helped. While time and finances are tight, the Lord has seen fit to bless those that give of their resources.

THE SOCIAL COMMITTEE

The Social Committee is involved in planning for a variety of social events. These get-togethers are planned so that the residents of the Village will have opportunities to meet with their neighbors for fellowship and fun. At the beginning of each school year the committee plans a 'Dessert' where all residents are invited. A Thanksgiving Dinner is also held for those who want to participate. Then, throughout the year there may be progressive dinners, street get-togethers, and farewell parties. This years committee is headed up by Marsha Ruth, and the members are: Sherrie deFelice, Penny Terry, Naomi Byo, Kim Croyle, Reni Weixler, Tammy Harris, and Donna Cash. Mrs. Margaret Powell is our faithful friend and advisor.

STUDENT MISSIONS FELLOWSHIP

Student Missions Fellowship's purpose is to provide a means by which all students may be informed about, prepared for, and involved in foreign missions.

We seek to fulfill this purpose through various activities led by the SMF council members. Two of our larger activities are World Christian Week and the annual Summer Missions Project, this year to the Philippines. This is not to overlook the many other ways of fulfilling our purpose such as through periodic chapels, geographical prayer groups, summer missions seminars and opportunities, special activities, outreach to other schools, and a vast amount of publicity needed to bring these activities before the student body.

Through these means we in SMF have sought to glorify our Lord and participate with Him in the extension of His kingdom around the world.

On December 18, 1952 an impossible goal was set by FMF to buy a plane for pioneer work in New Guinea at a cost of $5,000.

Through sacrificial work and prayer and giving, on April 8, not only was the money for the plane in hand, but an additional $2,000.

GEOGRAPHICAL PRAYER GROUPS

Geographical prayer groups are a significant ministry outlet to C.B.C. students, faculty, and staff. The vast need of a world separated from God presents a unique opportunity to all of Christ's servants here to take an active part in world evangelization through intercessory prayer. Every Christian has been equipped to participate in this strategic ministry, regardless of gifts, abilities, or vocational calling. SMF offers twelve different groups covering the entire earth that meet weekly to provide a unique small group atmosphere of personal involvement in God's global cause. These groups also meet occasionally during the chapel hour to provide the setting whereby the whole C.B.C. community can unite in believing intercession for the lost and for our brothers and sisters laboring in the harvest for the Lord. One of the most exciting aspects of this ministry is witnessing firsthand God's faithfulness unto all generations' through answered prayer.

WORLD CHRISTIAN WEEK

Fullness and Fulfillment, what is that? Sounds like what one would say after a good meal. But actually it was the theme of the World Christian Week. Fullness being the "awakening" of God's kingdom worldwide. David Bryant, a leading spokesman on prayer, and Malcolm Hunter from Sudan Interior Mission were the main speakers. Mission board representatives interacted with the students and provided short and long-term mission opportunities both at home and abroad. The week climaxed in a "Concert of Prayer" on Friday night which allowed the students to corporately beseech God to grant His Fullness and Fulfillment.

"World Christian Week" was a tremendous blessing to many students and only eternity will reveal the ultimate results of our prayers. In the meantime, our prayer for the students is to be sensitive and obedient to God in prayer for His "awakening and advancement" in our lives and world.

THE TEAM

Every year the school sponsors a team, through Student Missions Fellowship, which ministers in various places throughout the world. During the Summer of '84 our team traveled to the northern island of Luzon, Philippines and ministered with the Bibak Christian Fellowship. Team members participated in teaching, evangelism and discipleship in both Baguio City and La Trinidad as well as tribal areas in the nearby mountain province. In addition to the student members of the team one faculty member accompanies the group each year. Through this experience faculty members also gain an exposure to the things God is doing among other peoples and as a result grow in their personal commitment to God's purposes worldwide.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

The general objectives of the committee are: To care for the physical and spiritual well-being of international students. To promote fellowship among the international students as well as between the international students and other students on this campus. To maximize the contribution of every international student to the C. B. C. family, to the churches and to the outreach ministry to other international students in Columbia. To effectively meet these objectives, we have divided ourselves into smaller groups. The division is based purely on location of each student for greater convenience in praying, studying together, going to church or market together, and exhorting one another in every way possible for the building of the body of Christ.

"I am very grateful to God for meeting all my needs while in C.B.C."

Zemo Audu

"God's goodness is overwhelming."

Frans Van Den Heever

"It has been wonderful to see how faithful and gracious my Lord Jesus is in enabling me to study in a foreign language. With just two quarters of English in U. S. C., He has helped me finish my first quarter and start another one, and, I am sure that He will continue helping me until I finish my degree at C. B. C."

Juana de Madera

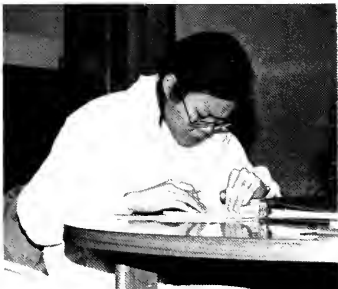

"My separation from my dear family for two years for the sake of Christ has not been painful, but a joyful experience. I have witnessed how Christ is Lord of distance! He has satisfied my soul!"

Peter Kitula

"In times of loneliness and feeling distressed He always comforts me through His promises to let me know that He cares and He loves me at all times."

Cynthia Yung

1926-1927 was the first year foreign students attended C. B. C. There were two from Poland, and one from Brazil!

AMBASSADOR CHOIR

In the beginning was the Word of Faith, and the Word of Faith was with the Ambassador Choir, and the Word of Faith was proclaimed by the Ambassador Choir. That Word of Faith is the "Good News Celebration" found in Romans 10:9 and 10, "that if you confess with your mouth Jesus as Lord, and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you shall be saved; for with the heart man believes, resulting in righteousness, and with the mouth he confesses, resulting in salvation."

"All creatures of our God and King" rejoiced as the 49 voice choir sang throughout the Carolinas during the school year and then toured Georgia, Arkansas, Mississippi, Louisiana, Tennessee and Texas on the 12-day tour over spring break. President Jon Hampshire voiced, "I especially enjoyed the unity that developed among the choir members over those long bus ride days."

"To Know Him and Make Him Known" was the message proclaimed in song, testimony, conversation, and lifestyle in homes, churches, schools, and prisons where the Choir endeavored to minister. The Walk of Faith was the challenge presented by the singers from the Romans 12:1 and 2 passage. Dr. Jerry Friesen stated, "What a privilege it is to be a part of God's work in teaching music ministry skills, and proclaiming the Gospel in Song."

This organization was formed in 1950. . . Those who first joined the choir, when asked what the purpose of the choir should be, were unanimous in selecting II Corinthians 5:20, "Now then we are ambassadors for Christ". . . as the choir motto.

GRADUATE SINGERS

The Columbia Graduate Singers, under the direction of Dr. Jerry Friesen, have banded together to serve the body of Christ through the medium of music. Using a variety of styles from Martin Luther's baroque works to the contemporary Ken Medina, the Singers are focusing their music on C. B. C's theme verse for the year, "Hitherto hath the Lord helped us. . . Thy faithfulness to all generations." During this 60th anniversary year, reflecting on God's faithfulness to this school and to His people corporately, the Graduate Singers present anthems of praise to God.

He has blessed His people! Concerts are given on campus, throughout Columbia, with the year highlighted by weekend trips to minister in churches in the surrounding region. How right it is to sing praises to the Lord!

LIVING HOPE

Living Hope is a small musical ensemble with the following ministry objectives: To present Christ Jesus in such a way that others would find salvation and become hungry to be "rooted and grounded" in Him and His Word. To use music as a non-threatening means to present the plan of salvation and the abundant life with Christ as Lord. To incorporate the Scriptures with personal testimony about the difference that Christ has made in their lives. To be aware that they represent Christ and Columbia Bible College not only through music but also in their appearance, speech, and lifestyle.

The music they sing is contemporary in nature, yet traditional in message. The songs are easily accepted and enjoyed by people of all ages. The team is available for church services, youth meetings, summer camps, backyard Bible clubs and retreats.

"... according to His abundant mercy, hath begotten us again into a Living Hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead."

WCBC

WCBC is the campus radio station of Columbia Bible College. It can only be received on the campus itself. WCBC plays contemporary Christian music during the "live" shows, broadcasts "The Moody Broadcasting Network" during the alternate hours, and is operated by the students alone. This adds a unique feature to the curriculum at Columbia Bible College because it provides students with a background in radio which can be valuable if a student wants to enter the field of radio either on the foreign field or here in the States. We, here at WCBC, thank the Lord for the way He has used WCBC in the lives of the students and pray He will continue to minister in the future. WCBC currently has five hours of "live" shows and hopes to increase the amount so we can broadcast the entire day.

STUDENT WIVES' FELLOWSHIP

"Pi Gamma". . . (Faithful Wives)

The Student Wives' Fellowship sought to provide opportunities for spiritual growth and ministry preparation specific to the needs of married women students and wives of students.

This year's theme, "God's Instruments", taken from Romans 6:13, emphasized the importance of yielding oneself to the Lord Jesus Christ to be used by Him as an instrument of righteousness.

Regular on campus meetings and city area prayer groups conducted throughout the year included guest lectures by spiritually mature women as well as times of Bible study, corporate prayer and fellowship. The topics addressed focused on specific areas of ministry essential to our roles as wives of Christian workers.

One highlight of the year was a special luncheon with Dr. Helen Roseveare, well known author, lecturer, and missionary for 20 years in the Congo.

KOINONIA CO-OP

The Koinonia Co-op is a group of over 70 families of C. B. C. faculty, staff, and students. We all work together to purchase good quality food at lower-than-store prices. Through membership dues and one person from each family working a few hours a month, we strive together to save both time and money. Produce, in season, is purchased each week, and a selection of food staples bi-weekly. The co-operative effort has been going for five years. We have especially seen God's faithfulness this year in our new location made possible by the C. B. C. administration's gift of two walk-in coolers. So, to paraphrase the year verse, "the Lord has helped us these past five years", and we pray "His faithfulness in C. B. C.'s generations to come!"

CLASS PRAYER

*"Past generations have seen thy works O Lord;
Teach us Thy ways."*

In the Spring of 1983, the M. Div. Class was formally organized. Its purpose being to: provide smaller opportunity groups for the sense of belonging to the M. Div. program, make more student leadership opportunities available, provide more occasions for faculty/student contacts, take responsibility for M. Div. chapels, open doors for social interaction among the M. Div. students, and give students room for more initiative in meeting felt, but unmet needs.

GRADUATE SCHOOL

In 1935 the board of trustees decided upon the founding of a graduate school with a two year course of study leading to the degree of M. A. in Biblical Education and a three year course leading to the degree of Master of Theology.

1941 Final

"The Lord has faithfully demonstrated the truth that He has lavished His grace upon us; for me having been a student, and now being on staff at C. B. C. is all of GRACE."

Sylvia Smith

QUOTES FROM PROFESSORS

"Never doubt in the dark what you have seen in the light."

Dr. Harold Burchett

"Every problem is a teaching situation."

"Now we're starting to preach. Let's move on."

Dr. Phil Steyne

"He has multiplied my work in the lives of graduates around the globe."

Paul Wright

"The Lord has helped me through my student days at C.B.C. by giving me a loving supportive wife who is a life-time team member in ministry."

Brad Mullen

A PRAYER by Laurie Lind

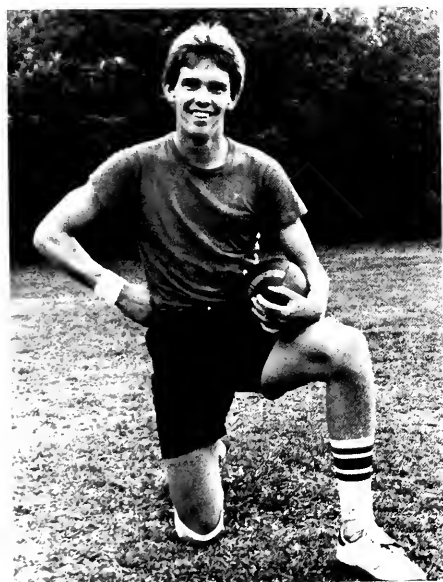

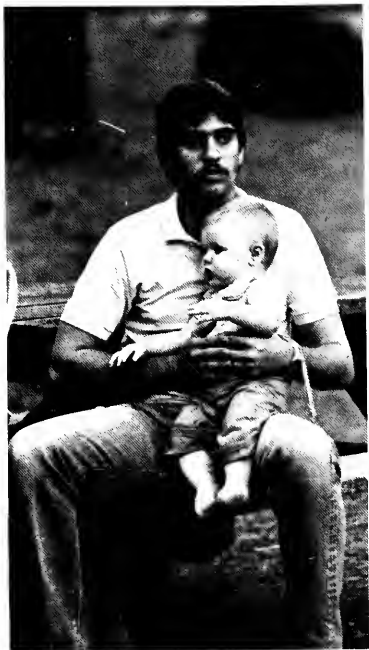

Lord,
May I not be just another cold, stone-hearted being
In this impersonal, uncaring world of not seeing.
Send me out into life with the warmth of Your love
So that I may be a living example of
Its ability to heal and to melt the cold heart
Of stone, which society builds. Lord, help me to start
New trends, by living joy and singing praise
And glorifying You. For in these ways,
Real missionaries are seen. Lord, I want to be
Your missionary, that the world may feel Your love through me.
Amen.

GRADUATE SCHOOL

The Graduate School may have the smallest enrollment of all the classes but it is by no means the least important! If this statement is doubted, just look over its membership. Please note the Ph.D. we have in our midst, the up-and-coming musician, already successful missionaries, ministers, and school teachers who are seeking further training, besides one who is the pride and joy of a famous hospital. Each member is planning to do fulltime work for the Lord." We believe the future has much in store for the Graduate School.

1944 Final

"God has been faithful in granting me perseverance when the load was heavy and the pressure great."

Eric Ernst

"After being away from school for eight years, the Lord has allowed me to maintain good grades, be involved in a local church, and maintain a good family life."

Terrence Fancey

"The Lord has provided all of our financial needs while at C. G. S."

A PLEDGE OF TRUST

Father, during this week there may be times when I shall not be able to sense your presence or be aware of Your nearness;

When I am lonely and by myself - I trust you to be my companion.

When I am tempted to sin - I trust you to keep me from it,

When I am depressed and anxious - I trust you to lift my spirits.

When I am crushed by responsibility and overwhelmed by the demands of people on my time - I trust you to give me poise and a sense of purpose.

When I am rushed and running - I trust you to make me still inside.

When I forget you - I trust that you will never forget me.

When I forget others - I trust you to prompt me to think of them.

When You take something or someone from me that I want to keep; when You remove the props I lean on for comfort in place of You; when You refuse to respond to my questions and to answer my too selfish prayers, I will trust You even then.

You, however, continue in the things you have learned and become convinced of, knowing from whom you have learned them; and that from childhood you have known the sacred writings which are able to give you the wisdom that leads to salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. All Scripture is inspired by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for training in righteousness; that the man of God may be adequate, equipped for every good work. I solemnly charge you in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to judge the living from the dead, and by His appearing and His kingdom: preach the word; be ready in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort, with great patience and instruction.

And can it be, that I should gain
An int'rest in the Savior's blood?
Died He for me, who caused His pain?
For me who Him to death pursued?
Amazing love! how can it be
That Thou my God shouldst die for me?

He left His Father's throne above,
So free, so infinite His grace!
Emptied Himself of all but love,
And bled for Adam's helpless race:
'Tis mercy all, immense and free,
For, O, my God, it found out me!

Long my imprisoned spirit lay
Fast bound in sin and nature's night;
Thine eye diffused a quickening ray,
I woke, the dungeon flamed with light;
My chains fell off, my heart was free,
I rose, went forth, and followed Thee.

No condemnation now I dread,
Jesus, and all in Him, is mine!
Alive in Him, my living Head,
And clothed in righteousness divine,
Bold I approach the eternal throne
And claim the crown, through Christ my own.

Charles Wesley

FAREWELL, SENIORS

For four years they have hidden under the protection of God in the shelter of C.B.C.—yet evidence of buds creeping through have often been seen. Now—after years of faithful training, hard work and growth in the Lord—the bud seems to be bursting into started bloom; ready to send the fragrance of Christ from their lives to a world—tho' in nature bright—in sin—black as ebony. Yours now is to plant the seed of Christ in other lives because you are going out in His service.

The Junior class officers entered this year not knowing quite what to expect, but through each aspect of it they can say "Hitherto hath the Lord helped us... His faithfulness is to all generations". The Junior class sponsored a series of fun Walt Disney movies to encourage as much student and family participation as possible. The class chapels were designed as times for special fellowship with other class members and were varied somewhat. We listened to a cassette made for us by Dr. Bennett and then countered with a tape of our own sent to Dr. Bennett and also to the Todd family, whom we support in prayer as they work in West Germany with the Kurds. The majority of planning centered around the Junior-Senior Banquet. The program was a little different than in past years, carrying the theme of looking back and looking forward. Overall the evening was a success - "His faithfulness is to all generations".

Therefore, since we have so great a cloud of witnesses surrounding us, let us also lay aside every encumbrance, and the sin which so easily entangles us, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, fixing our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of faith, who for the joy set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.

during my six years on staff? In a variety of ways—a tremendous boss, excellent co-workers, and students, many of whom have become life-long friends. God has used each to grow and strengthen me in my walk with Him."*
Vickie Clark

"Since arriving at C. B. C. in 1981, the Lord's faithfulness has been expressed in numerous concrete ways. Two ways that surface in my thinking immediately are:

- (1) He has sustained and enabled me through days of extreme pressure, when I felt that responsibilities and dead-lines were impossible to meet (Psalm 73:26).
- (2) He has provided miraculously for my family's financial needs, using other believers in my church to help us purchase a house, a car, and a hearing aid. These gifts total in the 'thousands'! Philippians 4:19

OUR FACULTY AND STAFF

"Having previously served 16 years on the mission field, God has been faithful in allowing me to be on the cutting edge of His eternal will as I am allowed to share in the decision of God's will for incoming students."

Bob Byers

"God has shown me that He enjoys helping me to do His work. And, that He is sufficient for all of my needs."

Grady Harmon

"The Lord has encouraged me by the responsiveness and spirit of understanding in students."

Lindsay Hislop

"God has been faithful to me in showing me daily the tremendous power of His Word in my life. His Word is precious to me, sweeter than honey to my mouth, my heritage forever, the joy of my heart (Psalm 119:103,111)."

Cynthia Nelson

"When He led me from the public school classroom to C.B.C., He promised He would be with me here as He had been there—He has kept His promise!"

Mary Faith Phillips

"Has God been faithful to me while I've been here at C.B.C. these 35 years?"

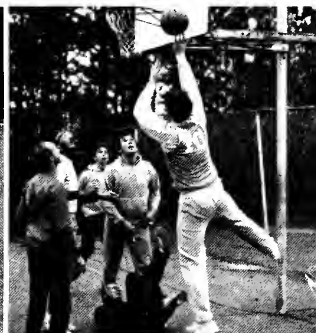

PHYSICALLY

He led a person to give me a half-acre property. He led a contractor to build my home for $8,700.00. These two miracles were part of the proof He wanted us here.

SPIRITUALLY

In giving us many choice young people to urge closer to the Lord. In satisfying our desire to be missionaries by making it possible to work in over 70 language groups helping them create hymns in their own idioms."

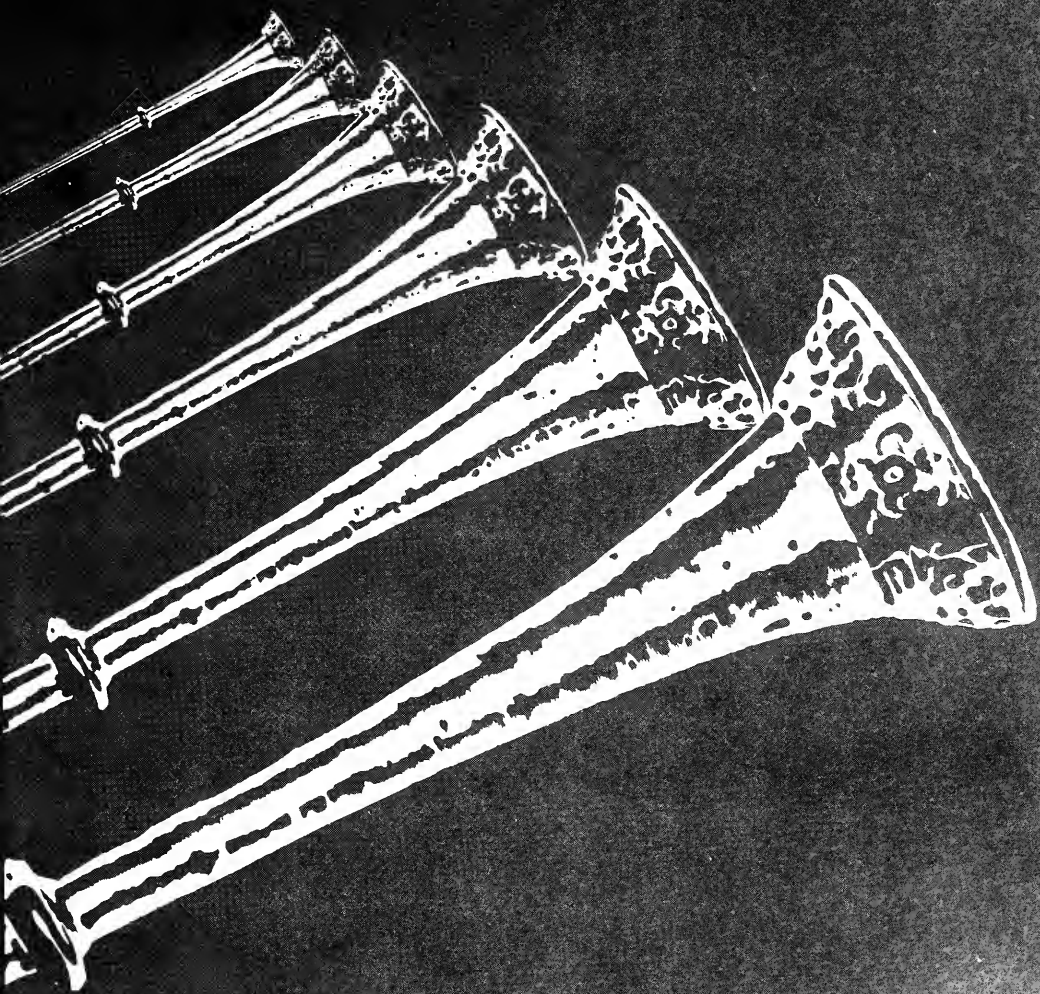

Bill Supplee

Do you not know that you are a temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwells in you?

SPORTS

SOCCKER

Although the soccer team did not make it to the play-offs this year, other more important goals were reached. Through simple acts like sharing soft drinks after the games, many contacts were made and many impressions left on opposing teams' minds. From the outset of the season, the team's prayer was that Christ be glorified through their lives. One of the players that we made contact with probably summed up everything rather well when he said, "You guys always play hard, yet you never lose control of your emotions, I wish other teams were more like that."

P. E. POINTS

Congratulations sophomores, for winning intramural soccer!

The body of the Christian belongs to the Lord, is indwelt by the Holy Spirit and is the physical vehicle through which he glorifies the Lord and communicates the Gospel. Optimum physical fitness is essential to all aspects of health: spiritual, mental, social and emotional. P.E. Points are designed to develop optimum physical fitness while in school, and lifelong habits of proper care for the body. A minimum number of points must be achieved each week, and they can be earned through personal exercise, physical education classes, or intramurals.

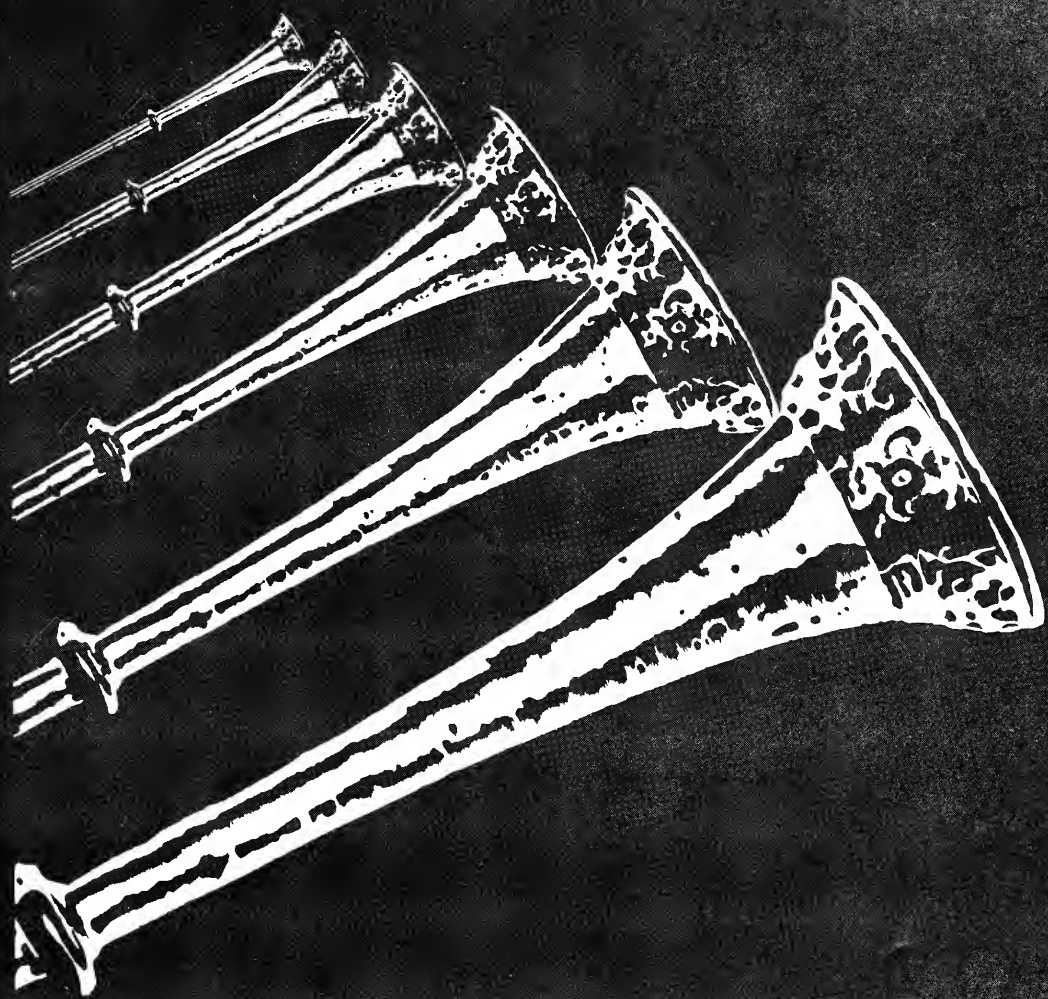

"A Day at C. B. C."
Can you forget that slenderizing exercise period which leaves one feeling like a "morning star (?)" or those knock out ball games
between the Dorms?

1941 Final

*Pray for us,
for we are sure that we have a good conscience, desiring to conduct ourselves honorably in all things.*

1983 Homecoming!

A FINAL WORD TO OUR FRIENDS AND LOVED ONES

For over 60 years God's faithfulness has been exemplified at Columbia Bible College and in the lives of its graduates. A stream of faithful servants of God have literally encircled the globe heralding the good news of the gospel—"that Christ died according to the scriptures, and that He was buried, and that He arose again the third day according to the scriptures" (1 Corinthians 15:3,4).

Would it not be a tragedy if you knew about C.B.C., knew some of its students, alumni, faculty or staff, but never knew the God who has so faithfully brought C.B.C. this far and the Savior, Jesus Christ, whom they proclaim?

Perhaps you've been on campus, or even given to the college, still Jesus Christ does not dwell in YOUR heart since you have not yet received His gift of eternal life.

Well, there's no better time than now to trust Christ. The Apostle Paul tells us that "now is the accepted time; behold now is the day of salvation" (II Corinthians 6:2). And James, speaking of the brevity and uncertainty of life, warned, "ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away" (James 4:14).

If you would trust Christ for your eternal salvation, you must first honestly acknowledge to God that you are a sinner "For all have sinned and have come short of the glory of God" (Romans 3:23). Then you must realize that you are unable to save yourself because, as Paul wrote, "by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God; not of works, lest any man should boast" (Ephesians 2:8,9). Finally, you must see yourself not as POSSIBLY facing the judgment of God SOMEDAY, but as facing imminent danger. The Lord Jesus Christ declared, "he that believeth not is condemned already" (John 3:18). As you can see, the unconverted are not in an enviable position. The all-important decision to trust Christ should not be delayed.

Our faithful God is ready to save you now and promises that "he that believeth on the Son (Jesus Christ) hath everlasting life" and "will not come into judgment but is passed from death unto life" (John 3:36; John 5:24). What is more, He promises you a heavenly home which the Lord Jesus is now preparing (John 14:2).

Standing before a holy God—a condemned sinner and unable to save yourself—how will you respond to Him who is both able and willing to save you? Our prayer at C.B.C. is that you will, in humility and sincerity, call upon Jesus Christ to save you. The promise of the Bible is: "That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved" (Romans 10:9,10,13).

When you have done this, you will be His and He will be yours for ever and ever! And the C.B.C. 60th year verse, "Hitherto hath the Lord helped us", will be a living reality to you, too.
